

- Extensive legal experience representing clients in complex business and commercial matters, coupled with substantial university teaching experience in prominent business school.
- Negotiated and documented numerous mergers, acquisitions, financings, business formations and other corporate transactions, including supply and service agreements.
- Represented creditors and distressed companies in business reorganization proceedings and restructurings.
- Teach auditing, fraud examination and advanced accounting to graduate and undergraduate students in top-ranked accounting program.
- J.D., Master in Professional Accounting and Master of Business Administration degrees from The University of Texas at Austin.

- Lecturer to graduate and undergraduate students in accounting.
- Give class presentations and lead discussions on matters relating to fraud examination and the audits of public and private companies, including corporate governance, Sarbanes-Oxley, risk, internal control, audit evidence and ethics.
- Also teach course in advanced accounting, covering matters relating to mergers and acquisitions, consolidated financial reporting, distressed companies, partnerships and international transactions.
- Administer classes of approximately 25-60 students each.

- Provide consulting services to Forensics practice of PwC via Omnipoint.
- Evaluate expert reports in litigation relating to accounting and commercial matters.

June 2007 to August 2007

KPMG LLP

Professor in Residence, Texas

- First Professor in Residence in Audit practice of KPMG.
- Rotated among audit engagement teams in the following industries: software, medical devices, refining, utilities, retail and private equity.
- Provided input on matters related to audit planning and internal control testing and performed various audit procedures.
- Completed firm's audit and ethics training program.

LEGAL

October 2008 to Present

Matheson Keys Garsson & Kordzik PLLC

Of Counsel, Austin, TX

- Represent business entities in acquisition, business formation, financing and other commercial matters.

October 1998 to March 2003

Fenwick & West LLP

Corporate Group, Palo Alto/Mountain View, CA

- Represented largest supplier to Applied Materials in negotiation of global supply agreement.
- Represented public and private technology companies in domestic and international mergers and acquisitions, including acquisitions for Interwoven, Flextronics, Adaptec, VeriSign, Niku, HNC Software, Compuware and Tekelec.
- Advised parties in debt and equity financings, including lending transactions, debt offerings and venture capital financings.
- Advised executives and boards of directors on strategic alternatives arising from business distress.
- Counseled technology startups in general corporate and commercial matters.
- Joined firm as Associate to facilitate transition from bankruptcy to transactional practice; on partnership track prior to returning to Texas.

September 1988 to September 1998

O'Melveny & Myers LLP

Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights Group, Los Angeles/San Francisco

- Represented financial institutions (e.g., Bank of America, Wells Fargo and U.S. Bancorp) and entertainment companies (e.g., Sony, Columbia Pictures and Paramount) as secured and unsecured creditors in complex bankruptcy proceedings and related litigation.
- Advised in structuring financial and intellectual property agreements to minimize insolvency-related risks.
- Drafted persuasive briefs and memoranda; strong research and writing skills; extensive experience in oral advocacy and speaking.

- Joined Los Angeles office upon graduation from law school; moved to San Francisco in 1994 to establish bankruptcy practice in that office; promoted to Special Counsel in 1996.

EDUCATION

December 2005, University of Texas McCombs School of Business,
Austin, Texas

Master in Professional Accounting

- Dean's Award for Academic Excellence
- Sommerfeld Scholar

May 1988 University of Texas School of Law Austin, Texas

Doctor of Jurisprudence

- Member of Legal Research Board

December 1985, University of Texas Graduate School of Business,
Austin, Texas

Master of Business Administration

- Dean's Award for Academic Excellence
- Member of Graduate Business Council

December 1983 University of Iowa Iowa City, Iowa

Bachelor of Business Administration (Finance)

- Graduated "With Highest Distinction"
- Honors Certificate of Achievement

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

- Licensed to practice law in Texas and California and admitted to practice before all California federal district courts.

ADDITIONAL PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

- Speaker at numerous educational and promotional seminars regarding bankruptcy and business law matters.
- Completed Turnaround Management Association's "Body of Knowledge" educational series for turnaround managers.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

- Born in Waterloo, Iowa and valedictorian of high school class.
- Married with two daughters.
- Coached girls basketball in West Austin Youth Association; certified by national Positive Coaching Alliance.
- Taught kickboxing to martial arts students.

